- Past Week Follow-Up:
 - This week I met with Jenn Penn, ASCSU's lobbyist. We caught up on the legislative calendar and talked policy strategy for the coming weeks.
 - I have been tracking several bills, including one regarding the structure of the CSU Board of Governors. There has not been any major "red flags" that concern us at the moment.
 - I hosted the Transfort Task Force this week to continue the process of assessing, and ultimately renewing, ASCSU's $550,000 contract with Transfort to provide bus service. This process should conclude by the end of April, possible sooner. We are taking suggestions on how to make the service better and welcome your input.
 - I am also working on helping my assistants begin the process of transitioning into next year. I am holding meetings to discuss my role, the historical context of my department and thoughts on the future.

If you are interested in Governmental Affairs, I would strongly suggest talking to me and coming to these meetings.

- Goals for Next Week:
 - Help the assistants prepare for the transition to next year.
 - Continue to track legislation and stay on top of events at the capitol.
 - The Transfort negotiations are obviously a huge part of my time right now. Please come and be involved in this process. It is the largest part of ASCSU's budget and also one of the most important times for student involvement. We are meeting with Transfort Leadership Monday morning as part of this process.
 - We will be meeting with state house candidate Joann Ginal on Tuesday as well in order to begin the process of building a relationship with ASCSU.

▪ Student Services – Tim Brogdon

▪ Past Week Follow-Up:

▪ For-Ever-Green

- We will be working with LSC marketing and Andrew Ives to try and promote elections via For-Ever-Green
 - We will be giving out For-Ever-Green shirts during elections April 2nd – 4th
 - Next year's shirt will be selected during elections and it is important for everyone in ASCSU to try and promote elections and voting.

▪ Jason will start planning for I-Ball

- Has had a meeting with Eric and Rachel and is going to have another one to make sure all the details are hashed out and everything will be ready to go day of
- Had meeting number two with Eric and Pam Sampson to make sure things are set. We are going to be inviting administrators and make sure all of us are ready to go for an amazing I-Ball
- We have started the planning process which Eric, Rachel, and Kim have been very helpful with.

▪ Met with Ben Tedford to discuss softball tailgate for April 15th

- Pending on Monday's decision and info from Athletics we will hopefully have hot dogs, popcorn, and give-a-ways in the 2nd, 4th, and 6th innings for students who come and enjoy the game
 - Raven will play a little role in this, but it will require less planning than the other tailgates we're going to have.

▪ Goals for Next Week:

- Talk to Jason, Lynn, and Chris all about what they have going on for the rest of the semester.
- Meeting with Chris and Lynn to discuss their initiatives
 - Chris has slowed down a little bit in traditions council and
- Meeting with Presidential Ambassadors about teaming up for an event in April
 - Trying to figure our role in this event concerning tuition and private donors if any. We still have some money to give to programs like this we just don't know what we would be putting our money to.
- Team up with Snowriders to help students get free snow/ski repair
 - Snowriders is supposed to be having an event, but they have been busy with other things this year.

▪ Sustainability – Seth Danner

▪ Past Week Follow-Up:

- Judicial Branch
 - Chief Justice – Kellen Wittkop
 - Past Week Follow-Up:
 - For the next 7 weeks, Associate Justices and our Liaison will be submitting supporting judicial reports to discuss their experiences this semester on the Court. Please look for those following my report.
 - The AUHB finished a hearing last week. It went very well overall, and we will be deliberating on Wednesday.
 - As I mentioned in Senate, AUHB will now be meeting Wednesdays at 6:00 pm. I will do my best to attend as many Senate sessions as possible to deliver judicial reports and swear in new members. However, if I am not in attendance at Senate, it is because I am conducting business for AUHB. If anyone has any questions about this, please feel free to ask.
 - The Court will focus this semester on trainings and preparing for elections. In April, the Court will be traveling to Denver to speak with Justices of the Colorado Supreme Court.
 - Supreme Court Liaison, Keith Patton, will be working on a presentation to Senate and follow-up Collegian article detailing the Court’s role in elections in order to better inform the student body of our processes.
 - Keith will also be working on a new project to update the Supreme Court Manual which has not been revised since 2008.
 - Justices are continuing hearing assignments and shadowings. Shadowing should be completed by the end of March.
 - The Court webpage will soon be updated with our By-Laws (as revised and ratified in November) and the current manifest of justices.
 - Goals for Next Week:
 - Finalize Denver Training
