

■ Dates to Remember

- 4/2/12: Voting Begins
- 4/2/12: Today marks the 1st day of mixed Race Week:
- Tuesday, April 3 CSU TED Talks: Part 1 11 a.m.-noon, LSC - 210 Lions, bears, tornados, avalanches... All these things are clearly dangerous, but would you ever think that a story would be dangerous? Come join Shades of CSU in viewing a short film "The Danger of a Single Story" followed by a discussion centered around the film.
- The Race Fight: A Check in More Than One Box 6p.m.-7 p.m., LSC APACC Have you ever wondered how you are "counted" in the CSU statistics according to your race/ethnicity? New Changes in reporting policies provide CSU students with the right to identify as being more than one race/ethnicity. Checking more than one box is causing some concern when it comes to the statistics of minority groups on the CSU campus. Come join Shades of CSU as Jim Rawlings and Kate Wormus discuss the effects of checking more than one box.
- Mixed Race Representation in the Media. 7 p.m.-8 p.m., LSC APACC Come join an engaging presentation by Shades of CSU Co-Advisor, Carl Olsen, to see how popular films allude to the mixed race community. We promise you will view media with a different lens after this session!
- 4/3/12: CSU College of Business 2012 Business Day with keynote speaker: Chris Gardner from the Pursuit of Happyness 12pm-1pm in the Lory Student Center on Tuesday April 3rd, 2012
- 4/4/12: Women at Noon: In Between Ethnicities: Latin Asian Noon, LSC 220 - 22 While there are benefits for being a part of two completely different cultures, there are also some challenges. This interactive session will include a short video made by the presenter that takes a glimpse into her eyes as being a Chinese and Puerto Rican woman. In a world where we are constantly told what it means to be a certain race or ethnicity, what if these cultures clash with each other? We will take a deeper look into how each individual in the session has one place in their world where "two different worlds collide." After looking into this "collision of cultures" whether it stems from gender identity, racial/ethnic identity, and/or class identity we will then discuss ways of moving towards understanding and peace with all of who we are. Come join this conversation with Kim Ford as collaboration with Shades and Women at Noon.
- 4/4/12: Winners of the ASCSU Elections Announced
- April 4th – AUHB Pre-Hearing Meeting
- 4/5/12: Eric & Rachel to Greek councils
- 4/5/12: Cultural Speed Dating 4:30 p.m.-6:30 p.m., LSC 213-215 An event to practice cultural communication across different genders, and identities, and learn tools to use when talking about race and culture with friends, families, and partners.
- 4/5/12: CSU TED Talks: Part 2 11 a.m.-noon, LSC 210 Have you ever looked at the person next to you and wondered what their story consisted of? Well, now is the opportunity to come listen to some of your fellow CSU students share their story about their experience as being a mixed-race individual.
- Loving Day: Dinner and a Movie 6 p.m., LSC Commons Come celebrate Loving Day with Shades of CSU with dinner and a movie. We will be watching "Mr. and Mrs. Loving" while enjoying some free food catered by Spoons (first come, first serve). The film will start at 6:30pm and will be followed by a brief discussion of themes, events, and reactions. Hope to see you all there!

“ASCSU-

A webcast of last Thursday's full Stadium Advisory Committee meeting can be viewed online at www.colostate.edu/stadium. Additionally, I have attached the subcommittee reports that were presented at the committee meeting last week. The only one that is not attached is the Site Selection report, as it is too large of a file to e-mail. It can be viewed at the link above.

Please let me know if you have any questions. Thanks,
-eric”

- Judicial Branch
 - Chief Justice – Kellen Wittkop
 - Past Week Follow-Up:
 - Unfortunately, the Court will be losing two of our valuable members at the end of the semester. Justice Vodraska is graduating and Justice Kostareva is transferring. I greatly appreciate all of their contributions to the Court, and they will be missed.
 - I will be starting the hiring process for these positions on Monday, April 2nd. Applications will be available at the front desk and online. Completed applications must be turned in to the ASCSU Front Desk no later than 5 pm on Friday, April 13th. Selected applicants will be scheduled for interviews the week of April 16th. Please refer anyone you know to the applications.
 - For the next 7 weeks, Associate Justices and our Liaison will be submitting supporting judicial reports to discuss their experiences this semester on the Court. Please look for those following my report.

- The AUHB completed our deliberation meeting this past week. We were able to work very effectively as a group to evaluate the situation. Next week, we will be starting a new case and complete our pre-hearing procedures.
- As I mentioned in Senate, AUHB will now be meeting Wednesdays at 6:00 pm. I will do my best to attend as many Senate sessions as possible to deliver judicial reports and swear in new members. However, if I am not in attendance at Senate, it is because I am conducting business for AUHB. If anyone has any questions about this, please feel free to ask.
- On April 16th from 9 am to 3 pm, the Court will be traveling to Denver to meet with a current Colorado Supreme Court Justice, Justice Boatright. We will be discussing various topics with him and training on issues which are directly applicable to our processes and future goals.
- Supreme Court Liaison, Keith Patton, will be submitting a follow-up Collegian article on Tuesday, April 3rd detailing the Court's role in elections in order to better inform the student body of our processes.
- Keith will also be working on a new project to update the Supreme Court Manual which has not been revised since 2008.
- Justices are continuing hearing assignments and shadowings.
- The Court webpage will soon be updated with our By-Laws (as revised and ratified in November) and the current manifest of justices.
- Goals for Next Week:
 - Begin hiring process
 - Begin revision of Court manual
 - Begin alumni database
 - Document updating
- Miscellaneous:
 - Please contact me if you would to attend an Court/AUHB meetings
 - Direct any questions to myself (kellen@go-ebs.com) or the Court email (ascsu_supreme_court@mail.colostate.edu)

▪ Associate Justice Vodraska

So far this semester:

- Utilizing our law advisor, Rob, has been great. This semester has been beneficial in growing the Court and for assistance in class projects.
- All of the justices have been serving on different boards this semester. This has helped the Court get more involved in other things outside the court.
- We have had team-building activities that have really helped the Court get closer.

- We met as a team to train for AUHB hearings and deliberations and this helped us understand our different debating styles; we have used this to our advantage during deliberations- especially to make us more efficient.
- The new justices have been shadowing the justices during pre-admit and appeal hearings; they have figured out the process very quickly and have made valuable input during the hearings.
- Kellen has been an amazing Chief Justice; she has been organized and stayed positive throughout the semester even with all the new changes.
- The addition of having food during our weekly meetings is awesome; it has actually made us more energized and efficient.
- Bringing in new Associate Justices has been great; they all fit well with the rest of the Court and I am confident they will lead the court the next two years well.

Upcoming:

- Traveling to Denver to speak with Justices of the Colorado Supreme Court
- More pre-admit hearings and appeal hearings

Goals for the rest of the semester:

- Volunteer for RamRide
- Be in the office more
- Attend more ASCSU events
