Executive Branch

▪ President – Regina Martel

- Progress on Goals from the Last Week:
- Looking at voter registration for the upcoming election and how ASCSU wants to be involved.
- Pre-Season Game Management Football – met to get all of the moving parts in motion from the detox tent, to the police to Positive Impact to ensure that all games are ready for the new start time and are ready for a great year of football!
- Student Planners: If you have not yet received your free student planner make sure to grab some and make sure to tell your friends that they are here for every student. We are working on creative ways to get those out to students such as Plaza time etc.
- Lory Student Center Renovations:
 - The Senate Chambers have been added to the renovations plan which will make the ASCSU complex a great, functional office. We are still working on some logistics and if you have any comments regarding this addition please let me know.
 - Looked at commons areas ensure that students have space to study, as well as space to decompress and hang out with friends. Essentially this meeting with the architects added some character to all of the spaces to ensure that different areas still felt like it fit their offices.
- Water Closet Weekly: met with the writers of the monthly column who will have space in College Avenue for their publications per a contract signed last year. Look for them in the next edition!

- Community Welcome: the annual Community Welcome went so well! Hats off to John who helped Off-Campus Life put on a great event that strengthens the relationship and collaboration between the Colorado State University and Fort Collins Community.
- Met with Athletic Director, Jack Graham to go over some expectations and really to explore different ways that our two areas could collaborate on different things.
- Ram Ruckus – If you haven't signed up to be a part of Ram Ruckus, the new student spirit group on campus make sure to do that as soon as possible! It is a great way to show your Ram pride and get great swag along the way!
- Congratulations again to Taylor being named the new Director of Student Services! She will do great in her new position!
- Goals for the Next Week:
 - Research board by-laws for other advisory boards and look at ways that we can use that information to help get our advisory board ready and be effective for our September meeting
