 - Maher: I-Ball is coming up and I would like to thank you all that voted. With that said, I have awards here. If you have already voted, please don't take one. I will pass them around and they are organized by branch. I have included everyone's name. We are working on May Day. I would like to thank all senators and their respective colleges.
 - Wells: There will be a card available for Mary Ontiveros and she had a recent loss in her family so please sign that card.
 - Whitesell: Tomorrow we are going down to DU to talk about mental health initiatives.
 - Guinn: The only thing I wanted to tell everyone was that I had a meeting with Amy Parsons and she has listened to everyone's complaints about parking and proposed recommendations and has proposed to postpone these things for a couple years. There was a direct split in their old proposed idea and she asked for 2 years to evaluate the parking decision. I know a lot of us were against the proposed plan and they listened and are trying to evaluate the best way to move forward.
- IX. Judicial Reports
- X. Senator Reports

XI. Associate Senator Reports

XII. Election Results

- Gurau: Thank you for everyone's help. Everyone from elections committee is not here tonight but thank you from the bottom of my heart, you've helped me so much. So thank you. I have a small token of my appreciation for them. I have had four advisors that helped out a lot for this. Thank you Kim Grubbs and Pam Norris. Thank you to the current ASCSU administration, Sam and Lance. Jason Huitt is my other advisor who can't be here tonight. I want to thank him and finally Kathleen Harward. Thanks for all the campaigns for your hard work. The constitution was approved so all amendments have been passed. This is your new ramweb layout. And this is forever green. When people vote, it's anonymous and we are able to tell the voter turnout by seeing how many spots on the sheet were filled up. The results are calculated by an algorithm. I will now announce the senator winners. We had 4,018 voters which is 16.32% of students. The winners for this election are Jason Sydoriak and Taylor Albaugh.
