ABSTRACT: This resolution thanks and recognizes the Rocky Mountain Collegian for One Hundred and Twenty-Five years of distinguished service and experiential learning in the University Community.

WHEREAS

The Rocky Mountain Collegian (“the Collegian”) was founded in 1891 and has since served the threefold purpose of, making students and the community aware of campus happenings, providing a platform for public discourse and providing a skill development opportunity for student staff; and,

WHEREAS

During this time the Collegian witnessed, reported on, and provided dialogue for such historical events as the creation of the Stump, burning of Old Main, student protests of the Vietnam era, and even the pre-world war II dialogues between pro and anti-Nazi members of campus; and,

WHEREAS

The thousands of students who have participated in the Collegian have added value to the collective student experience.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT HEREBY BE RESOLVED

That the Forty-Sixth Senate congratulates the Collegian on its dedicated service; and,

NOW THEREFORE BE IT HEREBY BE FURTHER RESOLVED

That the Forty-Sixth Associated Students Senate extends its heartfelt thanks and congratulations to the Collegian and its dedicated staff and students for One Hundred and Twenty-Five years of Journalism.
