

Dates to Remember:

Executive Branch:

- President – Samantha Guinn
 - Work Accomplished:
 - Banner for Homecoming
 - Completed the 100 years of Coming Home banner for the student services department which people on the plaza signed and got to participate in.
 - Meeting with Aaron Fodge
 - We got caught up to speed on issues with alternative transportation like the new parking plan and what that will do to campus, the Around the Horn route and how we can service the South side of campus, and what the city is thinking with Bike Share. Aaron and Sam Block have bi-weekly meetings to discuss this and will update us as they come about.
 - CSU Campaign committee meeting
 - Discussed different strategies for the campus and what else needs to be done to keep us on the road that we are on. Saw the new rebrand and how that is going to shoot us far ahead from our competitors.
 - Met with Ashley Thorne and Robyn from the National Association of Scholars
 - They are doing a comparison and research on CSU, UNC, CU, and UW to see what the university and teachers are doing to encourage students to understand civics. I discussed the different approaches that CSU uses and also why CSU is so special to so many.
 - Weekly with Pam
 - Weekly with President's Office
 - Cabinet
 - Had a professionalism presentation from Director of SLiCE, Pam Norris
 - I also had received feedback from directors on what should be brought up at the CSGC on October 25th to make sure that we are doing our part to represent students across the state of Colorado.
 - Senate
 - Judge Chalk for Homecoming
 - I was fortunate enough to be able to judge the chalk art that the Greek homecoming teams had drawn on the Plaza with Pam Norris, Mike Ellis, and a few others.
 - UFFAB reception
 - Heard about all the great things that UFFAB is and has done on campus and what that impact to students has been across the board.
 - UFFAB meeting

- Discussed a partial fee for the PVM students.
- Hosted Utah State University
 - For homecoming, USU brought their student government to Colorado for the game and to visit with CSU. We gave them a tour of campus and important buildings such as the Rec Center, LSC, Library, Bioengineering building, and the Oval. On Saturday before the game, we had them in the new senate chambers for department breakouts, as well as a presentation from RamRide to give them the information and tools necessary to start their own safe ride program on their campus. We also were explaining our initiatives to them which they want to implement, but we also had some great ideas given to us in return that we are hopeful we can start here at CSU.
- ASCSU alumni event
 - We had a great event with ASCSU alumni and were able to recognize some very special people who were in ASCSU- Michael Stratton, currently are leaders in the organization- Mackenzie Whitesell, and someone who has shown great dedication to ASCSU and is an amazing advisor- Jason Huitt.

- Updated the ASCSU Constitution and Bylaws with the recent Bills and Resolutions that have passed through Senate
 - They are ready to be uploaded to the new website as soon as we meet with ACNS to receive access to the website.
- Questions on legality of Bill #4406 The Ten Million Dollar Cap have come into question, so I have begun conversations with Jason Johnson and Bob Schur from CSU General Council and Policy
 - I am receiving the impact on the bill to the CSU system and the State of Colorado law with the Southworth doctrine.
 - I will be passing this information along to External Committee once I have received it
- Met with Aaron Fodge
 - Discussed the CSU-Fort Collins Bike Share program and discussed the current objectives about pricing, which bikes, what model, and what is the best way to implement the program
 - We also looked at the CSU Bicycle Plan and gave feedback to Aaron. Senate is working on producing some legislation in regards to possibly supporting a few of the ideas.
- University Facilities Fee Advisory Board Appreciation
 - Attended the event as the chair of SFRB and discussed possible bylaw changes with the new Chair of UFFAB
 - Will be talking to the executives in the next few months about the adjustments
- Utah State
 - Met with Utah State Friday and Saturday to discuss how each of our respective organizations run and the responsibilities of each
 - I was able to sit down with the Executive Vice President of USU and we found that we have the exact same job descriptions and duties

 - Deputy Director of Ram Leadership Team- Nate Todd
 - Work Accomplished:
 - Last weekend we had our retreat! It was a phenomenal retreat for all of us!
 - All but 2 were able to come so we had awesome attendance. It was up in Estes Park which was really nice to get away from Fort Collins, it really put everyone in the "retreat mode" mind set so we all were able to focus.
 - For future reference I would greatly recommend a retreat that was out of town and more importantly overnight. It really brought us closer.
 - Lance LiPuma joined us for the weekend which I felt was very beneficial for both parties. RLT got to get closer with someone very important in ASCSU and Lance was able to expose himself to a group that he represents.
 - Goals for Next Week:

- Since The LAverne Cox speech is the same time as our meeting, I will not be there. I am trusting in Kyle to lead a good lesson that we will work on together. I wanted to try to get all of RLT to go see her speak but tickets were all sold out.
