This also allows Elections Committee to decide if someone “seems with cause” to be getting to many fines and not following the rules set by the Elections Code, we as an Election Committee body, can vote to have them pay a monetary fine.  - Progress on Goals from the Last Week:
 - This week, Governmental Affairs has been surprisingly busy:

 - This event was almost entirely handled by the Congressman’s office, but Matt, Regina and I did meet and discuss tuition and concealed carry afterwards.

 - This entailed confirming transportation, ordering food, requesting supplies, finalizing our list of speakers (thank-you, Matt), and confirming that we have a conference room booked.
 - The room only seats forty, but we will be able to bring in additional seating as needed. REMEMBER, IT IS MARCH 5TH (TUESDAY).
 - Another focus of our department was the ASCSU Senate resolution, which addressed concealed carry.
 - This issue was quite contentious, and we conducted two days of polling on the plaza to assess the student position.
 - Finding that 79% of the students that wished to share an opinion were in support of concealed carry, I introduced the resolution to read that students oppose H.B. 13-1226, which would ban concealed-carry on all university campuses.
 - This was a very contentious bill, but it passed by a strong majority.
 - We also worked on New World Politics quite a bit.
 - The department’s assistants have updated the website, and I have been drafting NWP’s final contract draft.
 - I’ve also been working with marketing to develop material to hand out on the plaza for its launch party.

 - In the upcoming week, we will be holding one of the most important Tuition Task Force Meetings we have had so far.

 - Progress on Goals from the Last Week:
 - Liaison Patton submitted a Letter to the Editor to the Collegian this week in response to the inaccurate article regarding credit requirements for ASCSU employees. I hope you all had a chance to read it.
 - Associate Justice Nick Dannemiller was ratified on Wednesday. We are very excited to welcome to the Court and think he will make a great addition to our group.
 - Projects Court members are working on:
 - The Supreme Court Manual is finished
 - The Case History is on schedule; it will be posted on our webpage once it is completed
 - Liaison Patton and I will be working on a Supreme Court Archive

- Justices Stigall and Nagel are going to start looking into other judicial branches around CO in hopes of putting together a conference in the fall
- The Court will be traveling to the CO Supreme Court on Wednesday, March 6th to hear oral arguments. This will be the first larger training of the year.
- On March 10th, the Court will be holding an Elections/Long Bill Processes training. Elections Manager Loendorf will be joining us as well.
- In late April, Judge Lynch of the Larimer County Eighth Judicial District will be hosting a training with the Court.
- The new office hour schedule is posted on our door.
- The AUHB had our first hearing this week and it went very well. We will meet for quick deliberations tomorrow before having the second hearing for this case next week.
- The Court will be starting “Baked Goods Wednesdays” in the office. Gluten-free options are available. Everyone is welcome to bring in other items, or just enjoy!
- Justices are continuing to sit on appeal and pre-admission hearings. The next couple of weeks are expected to be busy for our hearings schedule.
- Justices will be submitting weekly judicial reports in addition to mine. Please see Justice Stigall’s report below.
- Goals for the Next Week:
 - Begin Archive
 - Compile binders for office
 - Research appeals board best practices
- Miscellaneous:
 - Please contact me if you would to attend an Court/AUHB meetings
 - Direct any questions to myself (kellen@go-eps.com) or the Court email (ascsu_supreme_court@mail.colostate.edu)
- Associate Justice – Cherica Stigall
 - The Court has started the semester out with lots of hearings and training. As an Associate Justice, I have both sat on pre-admit and appeals hearings in the last month on school. I sat on two appeals hearings last week and have a pre-admit hearing coming up on Monday. As always, our relationship with Conflict Resolution and Student Conduct Services is a well-oiled machine. By replying to emails in a timely manner, and adjusting schedules to work with other justices we have been helping students out, in these pre-admit and appeals capacities.
 - As a court this next week is gearing up to be full of trainings. On Sunday we will be doing an elections training to get everyone up to speed and prepared if an election issue should arise. We will be having the elections manager speak with us at that meeting, which should give all members of the Court valuable insights. On Wednesday March 6, we will be venturing down to Denver, to hear the Colorado Supreme Court receive oral arguments. This will be an interesting follow up to the training we did last spring, with a Justice on the Supreme Court.
 - The AUHB has started off the semester with a bang, with cases already under way, the new Greek members have already proven to be invaluable with their insights and different perspectives on ways of thinking. Things with the AUHB are going to be busy for a few weeks.

- Court members have been active in their own personal committees. A big Thank You to Justice Nagel for covering my own committee meeting this week! It was much appreciated. Also, big props to Supreme Court Liaison Keith Patton, for writing an insightful editorial to the paper, to address concerns raised by an article earlier in the week.
- As it has come to be expected, the Supreme Court members provide a variety of baked goods on Wednesdays in the ASCSU office. They are very yummy, and just a small way to appreciating all the hard work ASCSU does. Please stop in and try some. And maybe say hi to a court member or two.
