Aubrey, Senator, College of Business; Isaiah Martin, Senator, B/AACC; Kevin Sullivan, Officer of Recruitment and Retention; Kanayo Okolo, Associate Senator, Intra University; Kyndrick Peachey, Senator, College of Health and Human Sciences; Josh Williams, Senator, Multi Faith and Belief Council;

WRITTEN BY: Jennifer Murray, Associate Senator, College Of Liberal Arts

ENDORSED BY: Alissa Huber, Senator, College of Natural Sciences;

ABSTRACT: Due to recent stifling of discussion on the senate floor from frequent motions to previous questions by the Senate Body, the proposed amendments to allow for more thorough discussion.

WHEREAS

Our Bylaws state

Rule 3: Debate

- A. The motion for previous question shall not be in order until the author of a motion has yielded the floor and substantive discussion has already occurred

WHEREAS

In the 7th senate session of the 47th senate on multiple occasions the first 3 senators to speak were calling to previous question which caused genuine concerns during questions were then not heard

WHEREAS

If no one is on the speakers list we would move into a vote anyways

THEREFORE BE IT HEREBY FURTHER RESOLVED

The ASCSU 47th Senate Rules of Order be edited from

Rule 3: Debate

- A. The motion for previous question shall not be in order until the author of a motion has yielded the floor and substantive discussion has already occurred

To

Rule 3: Debate

- B. The motion for previous question shall not be in order until the author of a motion has yielded the floor and at least 5 minutes discussion has already occurred
