

ASSOCIATED STUDENTS OF COLORADO STATE UNIVERSITY
FORTY-SEVENTH SENATE
TWENTY-FIRST SESSION
APRIL 18, 2018

RESOLUTION #4724
Congratulating and Thanking Daniela Pineda-Soracá

---

SPONSORED BY:

WRITTEN BY: Josh Williams, Senator Multi-Faith and Belief Council and Chairman of the Budgetary Affairs Committee

COLLABORATED WITH:

ENDORSED BY: Alissa Huber, Associate Senator Warner College of Natural Resources; Isabel Brown, Speaker of the Senate; Katie Haggstrom, Senator Graduate School; Carter Fortuin, Senator Walter Jr. Scott College of Engineering, Joshua R. Johnson, Associate Senator ALVS; Chris Mann, Senator, College of Engineering; Zachary Vaishampayan, Parliamentarian; Vice President Elect, Kevin Sullivan; Tyler Siri, Elections Manager;

---

ABSTRACT: Congratulating Daniela on earning her citizenship and thanking her for her dedication and passion to ASCSU and the CSU Community

---

WHEREAS

Daniela has contributed extensively to the campus community through her involvement in many academic and professional endeavors, and;

WHEREAS

Daniela is a former President of ASCSU, winning the closest election in ASCSU history by 22 votes, and;

WHEREAS

She recently successfully helped lead the 2017-2018 Global Leadership Exchange Program to the Todos Santos campus in Mexico, and;

WHEREAS

She recently earned her citizenship, becoming a full citizen of the United States of America, so;

THEREFORE BE IT HEREBY RESOLVED

That the Associated Students of Colorado State University offer our hearty congratulations to Daniela on becoming a citizen of the United States of America, and thank her for her service, passion, and dedication to ASCSU and the broader CSU Community while also wishing her the best of luck on all of her future endeavors.

23-0-0

---

PASSAGE

04/18/2018

---

DATE

TAGS: Congratulations, Daniela Pineda-Soracá