Syron/Sullivan Administration 2018-2019
Week ending March 15, 2019

Executive Summary

A Message from the President

I believe Spring Break has come at a perfect time of the year. Things are going well but I can tell the year is starting to wind down and people need to find more motivation. For the sake of consistent messaging, I will hit the big topics:

Elections:
Elections have officially begun now we are back from Spring Break. We have marketing material to encourage people to vote and attend the debates. The first debate is Wednesday, March 27th at 11:30am in the Plaza. The second debate is Wednesday, April 3rd at 7:00pm in the LSC Theatre. We are eager to see if the candidates are hoping to continue with our current initiatives.

Transition for End of Year:
The Office of the President has begun to discuss how this should look and what our expectations should be to continue the momentum we have built throughout this term and contribute to the longevity of ASCSU's success. The end of the year report was sent out to the cabinet along with their job descriptions. We are asking for edits to the job descriptions and two drafts of their end of the year report. We are further exploring the transition and are hoping to plan a cabinet meeting to transition all the positions once the new executive cabinet is selected.

The concert:
Senate was cancelled on Wednesday due to the snow day, so the Bill will be voted on this week. The team has more information and will be able to anticipate and explain any questions or concerns that will come up. If the Bill passes, we will hire a middle agent immediately and start making offers. We will try to push out marketing around the effects of sexual assaults and data from last year. I do think that we can find a better solution to bring the campus together than running around in underwear.

Notes Bank:
The petition for a notes bank on campus had a lot of momentum initially. We are going to begin handing out flyers where students can scan a code to be brought to the petition page. Hopefully this will continue to be successful, but the academics department will need to meet with faculty council to get everything approved.

ACTIONS ACCOMPLISHED

Summary of Actions	Who was involved in ASCSU?	Notes
• Preparation for Next Year	• ASCSU Executive Branch	• We are preparing for the transition to next year's administration, which will start on June 1st. • The Executive Branch has started writing our transition reports as well as making our suggested edits to the job descriptions. • We have started this earlier than last year to try and give the new incoming President and Vice President an easier job.
• Notes Bank	• Department of Academics • Office of the President	• We are working to reinvent the existing ASCSU Test Bank to bring it online and update it with recent tests. • We have begun working on having a "notes" bank instead, allowing students to access notes from previous students in the course. • We have created a "pitch", contacted other universities around Colorado, and started a petition to judge student interest.
• Election Preparation	• ASCSU Supreme Court • Office of the President • Department of Marketing	• ASCSU's General Election starts when the student body returns from spring break, ending on April 10th. • Our Marketing is done, our elections committee is ready, we should be good to go. • Let's hope the candidates are ready to start campaigning.

CHALLENGES/SETBACKS/LESSONS LEARNED THIS WEEK

- Setback: Having the snow day on Wednesday was rather unfortunate, since that's when most of our meetings happen for the week.
- Lesson: Don't expect much from the week before spring break, especially when the weather snaps.

HOW THIS ADMINISTRATION WORKED TO PROMOTE THE CSU PRINCIPLES OF COMMUNITY?

- Respect: Giving next year's people whatever tools they need to fulfill the students' wishes.

ACTION ITEMS AND GOALS FOR THE NEXT FEW WEEKS

- Prepare job descriptions and transition reports for next year
- Gather support for the Notes Bank
- Hold our elections.
