

Syron/Sullivan Administration 2018-2019

Week ending March 29, 2019

Executive Summary

A Message from the President

Elections appear to be progressing well. It has been the best week of the semester. The office is a little emptier, but when I turned a homework assignment in on time and woke up to a clean inbox- it was totally worth it.

This Saturday I'm giving Joe Parker my 7-year tailgate plan. I'll set up a meeting with IFC to hopefully negotiate a deal. I think we'll solidify the plan for next year and have some ideas around game culture that Joe can think about moving forward.

Senate is spending money like crazy.... good? I think good. I must make budget assumptions for next year. Looking forward to finding out what the total amount spent is.

Notes Bank is going well- pushing the petition hard this week.

I was in D.C last week- most amazing policy conference in the world. I loved the city, the people, and the pace.

Be sure to Vote!

-Tristan

ACTIONS ACCOMPLISHED

Summary of Actions	Who was involved in ASCSU?	Notes
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Preparation for Next Year 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ASCSU Executive Branch 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> We are preparing for the transition to next year's administration, which will start on June 1st.

		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The Executive Branch has started writing our transition reports as well as making our suggested edits to the job descriptions. • We have almost finished compiling our budgets and financial documentation together for the next year. • We have started this earlier than last year to try and give the new incoming President and Vice President an easier job.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Notes Bank 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Department of Academics • Office of the President 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • We were working to reinvent the existing ASCSU Test Bank to bring it online and update it with recent tests. • We have been working on having a “notes” bank instead, allowing students to access notes from previous students in the course. • We have begun circulating flyers and been talking to student groups about the idea. • If there is enough support, we will hopefully start implementing this before the end of the academic year.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Student Internship Project 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Department of Academics • Office of the President • CSU Career Center 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Alongside the Career Center, we were working on a project to provide funding for students who have unpaid or underpaid internships. • The program would have had students applying for funding according to the criteria we had written up. • Unfortunately, it seems that there is no way for us to do this with student fee dollars due to the restrictions imposed on us.

- ASCSU Election

- ASCSU Organization

- We will start looking into alternative methods of funding next year.
- ASCSU's General Election has begun and will continue until April 10th.
- The candidates for President/Vice President as well as the Speaker of the Senate candidates have been campaigning on the LSC Plaza.
- The final debate between candidates will be on Wednesday April 3rd in the LSC Theater.

CHALLENGES/SETBACKS/LESSONS LEARNED THIS WEEK

- Challenge: We only have about six weeks left to finish everything for the year.
- Setback: We are not going to be able to finish the internship project this year.

HOW THIS ADMINISTRATION WORKED TO PROMOTE THE CSU PRINCIPLES OF COMMUNITY?

- Inclusion: We are looking into our own environment and trying to improve it, so that when the new people come the office will be welcoming.

ACTION ITEMS AND GOALS FOR THE NEXT FEW WEEKS

- Prepare job descriptions and transition reports for next year
- Continue to gather support for the Notes Bank and look into implementation
- Create plan to gather outside money for internship fund.
- Finish our Elections.
