

Syron/Sullivan Administration 2018-2019

Week ending April 5, 2019

Executive Summary

A Message from the President

Elections are almost over, only three days left. Looking back on last year, I wonder if Michael and Cole saw us the same way that I see the current candidates. I'm both happy and sad to be leaving soon: happy that I've accomplished so much and sad that I still have things left to do.

Speaking of things left to do, we still have quite a few things to do before we leave. The notes bank received some good feedback from faculty, and we may be moving to do it in a smaller way as a trial run. The internship project may actually be happening this year after we received some good news from CSU Legal Counsel. We still have projects going on in Environmental Affairs and Health that I want to see completed as well as our work on the housing ordinance that is still going well. I don't know how we could possibly finish everything before the end of May, but you can bet we'll try.

At this point, we have more momentum right now than any administration I've seen before in April. I say we use it before we all have to leave.

Be sure to vote!

-Tristan

CHALLENGES/SETBACKS/LESSONS LEARNED THIS WEEK

- Challenge: We only have about five weeks left to finish everything for the year.
- Challenge: We lately seem to be spending more time preparing for next year then doing work for this year.

HOW THIS ADMINISTRATION WORKED TO PROMOTE THE CSU PRINCIPLES OF COMMUNITY?

- Integrity: We are trying to ensure that we do not make promises that the organization cannot keep.
- Respect: We need to be ready to work with whoever wins the election.

ACTION ITEMS AND GOALS FOR THE NEXT FEW WEEKS

- Prepare all documentation to hand off for next year.

- Ensure BSOF bylaws are ready for next year.
- Finish planning for I-Ball
- See if the Internship program is still possible this close to the end of the year.
- Finish our Elections and announce the winner.
