

Syron/Sullivan Administration 2018-2019

Week ending April 26, 2019

Executive Summary

A Message from the President

Everything is going splendidly currently. This week’s focus is noise ticket reform. Will and I will be hitting up several key players for noise tickets. I think we’ll have a better idea of what the future will look like come Friday.

We set up a city council Mixer, I think we are excited and prepared to push our agenda and get to know everything

The “master” u+2 meeting is coming up on Sunday. I’ll start compiling all the work for Ben and completing my master outline plan. Hopefully we can set him up so well all he needs to do is send the right stuff out at the right time.

All in all, things are going well.

-Tristan
