

ASSOCIATED STUDENTS OF COLORADO STATE UNIVERSITY
FORTY-EIGHTH SENATE
13th Session
5th November 2019

BILL #4917
Increase Funding for Zero Waste Symposium

SPONSORED BY: Zach Simon, Deputy Chief of Staff, Sam Braun, Deputy Director of Campus Engagement, Will Sharpe, Director of Traditions and Programs, Ashlyn Foster, Director of University Affairs, Sophia Hinnen, Deputy Director of Environmental Affairs, Mitchell Ballew, Director of Academics, Maddie Blake, Deputy Director of Waste Diversion, Linzhi Douglass, Director of Diversity and Inclusion, Archana Sajeev, Director of Campus Engagement

WRITTEN BY: Gina McCrackin, Director of Environmental Affairs
COLLABORATED WITH: Melissa Quesada, Chief of Staff;

ENDORSED BY:

ABSTRACT: This bill would allocate an additional $2,500 to the Department of Environmental Affairs from the President's Discretionary Fund to provide enough funding for a successful Zero Waste Symposium.

WHEREAS

The Zero Waste Symposium is a yearly event in the spring that was planned and created under the umbrella of ASCSU, and;

WHEREAS

The Zero Waste Symposium highlights waste reduction successes, future plans, and educates CSU students on waste reduction, and;

WHEREAS

While funding numerous other projects, as it has been a successful year for the Department of Environmental Affairs, more money was spent than expected; so,

THEREFORE BE IT HEREBY ENACTED

That $2,500 be moved from the President's Discretionary Fund and added to the Department of Environmental Affairs under the Earth Week category for the Zero Waste Symposium, and;

THEREFORE BE IT HEREBY FURTHER ENACTED

That a copy of this legislation be forwarded to ASCSU President Ben Amundson and ASCSU Accountant Olivia Beck

33-1-0

11/20/19

PASSAGE

DATE

PRESIDENT Ben Amundson

DATE

TAGS: Environmental Affairs; Earth Week; Budgets; Zero Waste Symposium