VIII. Gallery Input

- Michael May, Co-President for the CSU Young Democratic Socialists of America Chapter and Student: Here in support of Lex #5417 – Creation of the At-Large Representative Student Council. Seeing the attacks on DEI in higher education, it is critical that ASCSU and the university take measures to protect Cultural Resource Centers and their student representatives. Is also here in support of Resolution #5411 - Calling Upon the University Policy Office to Sign the CRFW Letter of Intent, Making CSU a Recovery Friendly Workplace. It is important that people have the ability to recover from substance use disorder and find employment. CSU should care about and support these individuals.

- Jonas Andersen, Biomedical Sciences Student: Here to support Lex #5417 – Creation of the At-Large Representative Student Council. Believes it is critical to protect Cultural Resource Centers and their student representatives. The passage of this Lex would ensure that all voices are heard, especially those from marginalized and underrepresented communities.

IX. Executive Reports

- Director of Governmental Affairs Wilkins
 - Thank you to everyone who attended Day at the Capitol, it was a big success. Because of its popularity, Director Wilkins is including information in her transition report urging for more event funding so more students can attend.
 - Has been meeting with the Joint Budget Committee regarding funding in higher education and tuition caps. Were able to get the Committee to lower their proposed percentage and there has been an increase in general funding for higher education. Will continue lobbying for higher education affordability.
 - Will continue providing Joint Budget Committee updates.
- Vice President Dietz
 - House Bill 1090, a state bill ASCSU has been closely supporting just passed through the Senate. The bill deals with protections against deceptive pricing practices which prohibits a landlord from requiring a tenant to pay certain fees.

Will keep pushing for the Governor to sign the bill.

- SFRB has saved about $7 off the initial proposed fee increase.
- After all the presentations have concluded, SFRB will come to Senate with their proposed fee package for next year. This will occur in a few weeks.

X. Judicial Reports

- Associate Justice Scott Perez
 - Collaborating with Executive Cabinet for Know Your Rights Week. Will be bringing in contacts from immigration law firms to better educate students about their immigration rights. Also hoping to integrate workers' rights since many students work.

XI. Legislative Reports

- Officer Reports
 - Speaker Taylor
 - Later tonight this Senate's last session date will be decided. If you want to write and pass legislation, do so soon since there isn't much time left.
 - Quite a few strikes will be sent out this week. Avoid strikes by attending committees and Senate.
 - Parliamentarian Kamberg
 - The file issue with the Senate computer has been fixed, thanks Elisa!

- The edited version of the ASCSU Constitution has been sent out in the weekly newsletter and on the Teams. There have been lots of improvements with the Constitution's accessibility.
- Appreciates the feedback she has received from her QR code forms on the Speaker's Office door.
- There will be a parliamentary procedure training soon.
- Wants feedback for what the new Senate legislation template should look like.
- When sending legislation in an official capacity, it should be a file, not a link.
- If you make edits to legislation, make sure the name of your committee is in the title and upload it to the Teams. That is where the most recent versions of legislation edits will be.
- Speaker Pro-Tempore Reese
 - Will be introducing a piece of legislation codifying Senate's onboarding process soon. If you have any suggestions about the onboarding process, reach out to Speaker Reese.
 - All onboarding emails should be sent out with a Calendly link. If you need the email but haven't received it, contact her.
 - Lots of second strike emails will be sent out soon. Make sure to attend committees.

 - PhD student Brittany Lynner focuses on psychology related to work, particularly equity and worker well-being.
 - Has looked at the experiences of people recovering from substance use disorder and their work experiences.
 - Here as a recovery ally which means she is committed to creating work and learning environments that are inclusive, stigma-free, and supportive of people in or seeking recovery.
 - Discussed the importance and benefits of recovery friendly workplaces.
 - PASSED with unanimous consent

XIII. New Business

- Lex #5419 – Establishing a Voting Caucus
 - Abstract: “This bill aims to establish a voting caucus under Article VI of the Constitution.”
 - “THEREFORE, BE IT HEREBY ENACTED That a Subsection 605 be added to Article IV the ASCSU Constitution stating, “Section 605 - A Voting Caucus: A. A voting caucus shall take the form of a normal caucus, but shall be given the ability to appoint 2 Senators and 4 Associate Senators to represent their interests and needs in the Senate body. These Senators will be appointed by the caucus as a whole; this process will take place on the first official meeting of the caucus. The appointed Senators and Associate Senators will be sworn in by a justice of the Supreme Court or by the Speaker of the Senate. B. This voting caucus will represent the needs, interests, goals, etc. of a specific constituency outlined in the initial application and bylaws of said voting caucus. C. Voting caucuses will have their own bylaws. D. Senators and Associate Senators representing the voting caucus will, to the best of their ability, represent the constituencies and interests/goals of said constituencies that are established by the voting caucus. E. Senators and Associate Senators chosen to represent a voting caucus will be ratified by the Senate in a majority vote . F. Voting caucuses will be established through a lex presented and passed by a majority vote through the Senate. This lex will contain the bylaws of the Voting Caucus, the constituency they plan on representing, and the goals/action-items they will pursue as a caucus. Furthermore, this lex will require a change to the bylaws of the active Senate during which they are applying, detailing the constituency they are representing. After a lex establishing a voting caucus is passed, the constituency the caucus is representing will be added to the bylaws of its respective Senate. G. Voting caucuses will meet a minimum of twice per month E. Voting caucuses will be chaired by one or both of the appointed Senators who represent that voting caucus. F. A constituency who wishes to be represented by a voting caucus must either be a) a member of the At-Large Representative Council , or b) have had a constituency outlined in Section 204 of the ASCSU Constitution that has since been dissolved. G. A voting caucus will report to an advisor who will operate as another measure of accountability. ; and,”

- For transparency, this piece of legislation is to ensure CRC representation in Senate through the Constitution in the case that the CRCs are dissolved.
 - Believes a Voting Caucus would function most similarly to how CRCs currently operate.
- Will be sent to DEI Committee and University Affairs Committee.
